

Utilities

Electric Power

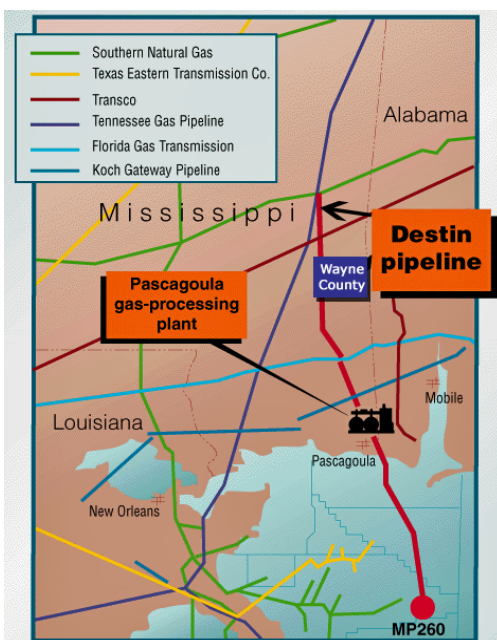

- Mississippi's energy costs are 20% less than the national average. Industrial properties in Wayne County are served by either Dixie Electric Power or Mississippi Power
- Dixie Electric is a non-for-profit, member-owned electric cooperative which serves Wayne County's two industrial parks
- Mississippi Power is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Southern Company with a total generation capacity of 3 million kW which serves downtown Waynesboro.

Natural Gas

- The Chickasawhay Natural Gas district supplies natural gas to industrial properties in Wayne County.

Natural Gas Pipelines

- The Destin Pipeline, operated by BP, is an interstate gas transmission line which runs through Wayne County with a capacity of 1,200,000 mcf.
- Additionally, Wayne County is served by the Chickasawhay Natural Gas District.

Water and Wastewater

- Water to industrial properties is provided by Hiwanee Water and the City of Waynesboro.
- Wastewater to industrial properties is provided by the City of Waynesboro.

Fiber

- Fiber is provided to industrial properties by:
 - New Wave Communications
 - AT&T
 - C Spire